Category information

Please note that you need to fill in a separate form for each category that you enter.

Enter three pieces of work for each category, all of which were completed in the twelve-month period up to 31 August 2022. Printed work can be scanned and submitted as PDFs. Online articles should also be presented as PDF pages (and include the weblinks in the form below).

For each piece of work submitted, please provide details in the table below, including:

- Title of article or description
- By-line
- Supporting explanation, up to 200 words per item (This is mandatory for 'News Reporter of the Year and Feature Writer of the Year. See the IBP website for criteria. This is optional for other categories).
- Website link (if applicable)

Additional information

It is compulsory to provide additional information for specific categories, summarised below. Please read full category criteria about these on the IBP website.

Scoop of the year Entrants should demonstrate proof of the story's exclusivity in the form of speed to market compared with rival coverage. Full entry criteria is available on the IBP website. Limit 300 words.
Editorial Brand of the Year The editor should include a statement clearly outlining why they believe the multi-platform approach has substantially covered the market sector during the year ending 31 August 2022, with investigative reporting, features and news stories. Full entry criteria is available on the IBP website. Limit 300 words.

Letter from the editor

A letter is needed if any stories are not by-lined in the article to verify authorship. Also, for 'New Journalist of the Year' applicants, the editor must provide a letter verifying that the journalist has no more than two years' experience in the sector(s) covered by 31 August 2022. Please including this letter within your PDF submission.
