International Building Press annual summer dinner

Presentation of the In House Magazine of the Year Awards

// I believe that these Awards provide the basis to recognise and reward the good writing and design that has emerged in corporate and membership magazines in recent years.

The presentation of these Awards at the summer dinner provides an ideal opportunity for us to support our colleagues and entertain our guests. //

Aaron Morby, Editor, Construction News
President, IBP

Reception in the Piazza (weather and access permitting)
Hosted by BDP

Guest Speaker: David Parsley Editor, CITY A.M.

IBP Award winning journalist and founder editor of London's latest business newspaper David Parsley shares his vision for CITY A.M. and the future of traditional newspapers and magazines in a world rapidly becoming dominated by digital media.

David Parsley

The ibp Annual Summer Dinner is the occasion for the presentation of the ibp In House Magazine of the Year Awards.

// The praise from our peers in employee publishing is almost as important to us as the views of employees themselves. We will be back for more this year. //

Kate Jones

Internal Communications Officer, Tarmac
Managing Editor, Tarmac World (Winner: In House Magazine 2005)

The dinner will provide members with the opportunity to dine and entertain guests together with editors and journalists from our leading business magazines in the BDP studio.

Enjoy the historic atmosphere of the former Cannon Brewery fermentation house built in 1895, commencing with a reception in the Piazza hosted by Building Design Partnership (BDP).

Tickets for the Summer Dinner and The In House Magazine of the Year Awards Presentations are £59.50 and include:

- Reception - The Piazza
- Three Course Dinner - BDP Studio
- Wine and water with Dinner
- and Awards Presentations
