Meet the Editors' Forum

at The London Architecture Biennale

sponsored by Redab Properties plc

Monday 19 June 2006 at 11.00 AM

Venue: St Bride's Church
Fleet Street, London EC4

more than just a network...

Who should attend?

This intensive two hour session, chaired by Canon David Meara, brings together eight leading editors in a format that will enable delegates to put forward their views and questions on the way they work with the media and how the media represents their industry. The forum will be particularly relevant to those responsible for media relations and communications issues whether they work in house for architectural practices, contractors or property developers or as a consultant.

Organiser

The Forum is organised by the International Building Press (IBP). Established in 1969 IBP is an influential body with a membership approaching 400 which includes editors, journalists, communications managers, information officers and consultants working in the construction, design and property industries.

Sponsor

The Forum is sponsored by Redab Properties plc a Swedish property developer, based in and developing properties in Clerkenwell, the home of the London Architecture Biennale.

Redab Properties specialises in creating high performance flexible offices by utilising the floor voids in refurbished buildings and incorporating advanced air filtration and ventilation, ergonomic lighting and core services technology, creating airy, light and modern office spaces where each individual can work to their best.

How to book

Tickets are £37.50 to include refreshments and lunch and are only available through the Seaton Ticket Agency on 0870 247 1207.
