

THE HOUSING CRISIS, INNOVATION OR SPECULATION?

The role of planning, infrastructure and the environment in the housing mix.

A debate in the Houses of Parliament hosted by The All-Party Parliamentary Built Environment Group in association with International Building Press and with the support of the URS Corporation.

A distinguished panel of leading industry speakers, MPs and Peers will exchange views and focus on the real issues behind the Government's call for more affordable houses.

With a keynote luncheon speaker and a networking cocktail party this whole day event promises to be ground breaking and informative.
