CALL FOR ENTRIES

"The Annual National Journalism Awards are the only Awards that recognize and reward the work of journalists, across the business and national press, writing on construction, design and property related matters. Winning an Award adds to the individual journalists CV and magazines masthead.

"The pages of our national press regularly carry stories that have been brokered by specialist journalists and nowhere is this more evident than in the building sector, where many of the most respected and oldest established business magazines in the country continue to make the running in their publications and daily through their websites.

"The IBP Awards are judged by your peers and readers (see full list of judges included in the conditions of entry) and exist to celebrate the work of journalists who contribute to magazines and websites and led the way in business reporting in our sector.

"By entering the 2009 Awards you are pitting yourself against some of the best journalists in the business – I wish you well in that endeavour".

- Journalists may enter as many categories as they wish, although the same articles cannot be submitted for more than one category.
  - Only one entry consisting of three articles is allowed per category.
  - Each category entry must be accompanied by a completed entry form and comprise of four copies of three different articles (ORIGINAL AND THREE PHOTOCOPIES OF EACH ARTICLE) published in the twelve months to 29th August 2009. PLEASE NOTE THAT EACH SET OF THREE ARTICLES MUST HAVE A COPY OF THE ENTRY FORM AND A STATEMENT, WHERE APPLICABLE, ATTACHED. If the articles are not by-lined, confirmation of authorship (from the editor) should be attached.

GROUP ENTRIES: For any category (except Magazine of the Year) a portfolio of three articles by more than one journalist from one magazine may be submitted. Each article must be by-lined by two or more journalists and the names of at least two journalists must be common to not less than two articles, although not necessarily in the same combination.

ARCHITECTURAL CRITIC OF THE YEAR: This category is open to architectural critics writing in English, all over the world, and seeks to distinguish their professional role from that of the more numerous, but nevertheless important, architectural writers who observe and report upon events and issues within the world of architecture. Architectural writers and journalists are served by the Architectural Journalist of the Year category, however they can enter both categories provided they do not submit the same article in both categories.

CONSTRUCTION JOURNALIST OF THE YEAR: Entries can include any element of civil engineering and construction, including such topics as infrastructure projects, environmental issues (like waste management), transport, utilities and energy.

NEWS REPORTER OF THE YEAR: Entries for this category should be accompanied by an explanation of no more than two hundred words giving the background to the three articles submitted. For example, you may wish to explain that the story was an 'exclusive' or that the degree of research or teamwork required to produce the story was of particular merit.

FEATURE WRITER OF THE YEAR: Entries for this category should be accompanied by an explanation of no more than two hundred words outlining the (3) articles relevance to current issues in the construction/property industry. This category also allows for a series of articles (no more than three) on the same subject over two or more issues of a publication.

YOUNG JOURNALIST OF THE YEAR: The age limit for this category is 25 years or under OR no more than two years experience, irrespective of age, in the construction/property/architectural sectors to the period ending 29th August 2009.

MAGAZINE OF THE YEAR (WEEKLY): The Awards (both weekly and non weekly) seek to recognize the importance of editorial team effort in producing high quality publications for every sector of the construction, property and architectural industries, during the period, year ending 29th August 2009.

MAGAZINE OF THE YEAR (NON WEEKLY): The non weekly category specifically encourages entries from specialist publications which are published monthly, quarterly or produced 6 or 10 times, during the period, year ending 29 August 2009. In both categories the editor should prepare a statement clearly outlining why he/she believes the magazine has substantially covered the market sector during the period, year ending 29th August 2009 with investigative reporting, features and news stories.

To support the above the editor should select any three issues, (Four copies of each issue) covering the period ending 29th August 2009 which should demonstrate use of research, choice of subject, photography, design and layout.

IBP JOURNALIST OF THE YEAR: This Award will be judged from the winning entries of the other nine individual categories.

Awards 2009

The winner in each individual journalist category will be presented with an Award and a cheque for £500 by the sponsor. In addition the Journalist of the Year, judged from the winners in each category, will receive an additional cheque for £1,000 and an Award.
