

44th Annual National Journalism Awards

Presentation Dinner – Thursday 30th November 2017

Four Seasons Hotel, Hamilton Place, Park Lane, London

in association with AECOM

Journalists in our sector consider the IBP Journalism Awards just as important to win as the PPA, AOP and BSME awards; many think that they are the only awards in which to showcase their work, in the built environment, and pitch their best work against their colleagues and rivals, to secure recognition for their work and content platform, be it a newspaper, magazine or digital platform.

The Awards Dinner provides you with an opportunity to dine and entertain your guests in the company of this year's winning editors and journalists from the built environment media.

You can host a category table, reserve your own table (with branding options), or half table, or simply purchase a single ticket.

For further details, timings and options please read on.
